

United States District Court
Eastern District of Michigan
Southern Division

United States of America,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 23-cr-20481

v.

Hon. Laurie Michelson

Austin Ray Sabb-Visga,

Defendant.

Plea Agreement

The United States of America and the defendant, Austin Ray Sabb-Visga, have reached a plea agreement under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11. The plea agreement's terms are:

1. Counts of Conviction

The defendant will plead guilty to Count 1, Count 8, and Count 12 of the Indictment. Count 1 charges the defendant with conspiracy to sexually exploit children under 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251(a) and (e). Counts 8 and 12 each charge the defendant with the sexual exploitation of children under 18 U.S.C. § 2251(a).

2. Statutory Minimum and Maximum Penalties

The defendant understands that the counts to which he is pleading guilty carry the following minimum and maximum statutory penalties:

Count 1	Term of imprisonment:	At least 15 years and up to 30 years imprisonment
	Fine:	Up to $250,000
	Term of supervised release:	At least 5 years and up to life
Count 8	Term of imprisonment:	At least 15 years and up to 30 years imprisonment
	Fine:	Up to $250,000
	Term of supervised release:	At least 5 years and up to life
Count 12	Term of imprisonment:	At least 15 years and up to 30 years imprisonment
	Fine:	Up to $250,000
	Term of supervised release:	At least 5 years and up to life

The defendant further understands that the Court has the discretion to run the sentences of imprisonment on the counts of conviction consecutively to each other.

The defendant understands that Counts 1, 8, and 12 each require a mandatory minimum sentence of 180 months' imprisonment and that the Court may not impose a sentence on each of those counts below the mandatory minimum.

3. Agreement to Dismiss Remaining Charges

If the Court accepts this agreement and imposes sentence consistent with its terms, the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan will move to dismiss any remaining charges in the indictment against defendant Austin Ray Sabb-Visga in this case. Specifically, the United States Attorney's Office will move to dismiss the following counts: Counts 2, 4, 6, 9, and 10, which charge the defendant with the sexual exploitation of children under 18 U.S.C. § 2251(a); Count 13, which charges the defendant with distributing child pornography under 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(2); and Count 15, which charges the defendant with possessing child pornography under § 2252A(a)(5)(B).

4. Elements of Counts of Conviction

The elements of Count 1, conspiracy to sexually exploit children, are:

1. Two or more persons conspired, or agreed, to commit the crime of sexual exploitation of children; and

2. The defendant knowingly and voluntarily joined the conspiracy.

The elements of Counts 8 and 12, sexual exploitation of children, are:

1. The defendant employed, used, persuaded, induced, enticed, or coerced a minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct for the purpose of producing a visual depiction of that conduct; and
2. The defendant knew or had reason to know that the visual depiction was produced or transmitted using materials that had been mailed, shipped, or transported in or affecting interstate or foreign commerce by any means, including computer.

5. Factual Basis

The parties agree that the following facts are true, accurately describe the defendant's role in the offenses, and provide a sufficient factual basis for the defendant's guilty plea:

Between August 2022 and March 2023, the defendant conspired with his husband and co-defendant, Todd Sabb-Visga, to use children in their care to engage in sexually explicit conduct for the purpose of producing visual depictions of that conduct. Specifically, the defendant and Todd Sabb-Visga conspired to use a child born in 2010 (Minor Victim One), a child born in 2018 (Minor Victim Two), and a child born in 2021 (Minor Victim Four), to create videos and images of sexually explicit conduct. The videos the defendants conspired to create showed Minor Victim 1 engaging in sex acts, including oral and anal penetration. The defendants also conspired to create videos depicting the defendant engaged in sexually explicit conduct with Minor Victim 2 and the lascivious display of the genitals of Minor Victim 4. In furtherance of the conspiracy, the defendant transmitted, using the Internet, the videos to Todd Sabb-Visga and others.

On or about August 24, 2022, in the Eastern District of Michigan, the defendant knowingly used Minor Victim 2 to create a video depicting the defendant engaged in sexual contact with Minor Victim 2 and displaying his own genitalia next to Minor Victim 2. To make this video, the defendant used a cellular telephone that had been transported in and affected interstate and foreign commerce.

On or about February 28, 2023, in the Eastern District of Michigan, the defendant knowingly used Minor Victim 4 to create a visual depiction of sexually explicit conduct. The defendant took a “live image” depicting the child’s genitals; the depiction was lascivious. To make this video, the defendant used a cellular telephone that had been transported in and affected interstate and foreign commerce.

6. Advice of Rights

The defendant has read the Indictment, has discussed the charges and possible defenses with his attorney, and understands the crimes charged. The defendant understands that, by pleading guilty, he is waiving many important rights, including the following:

- A. The right to plead not guilty and to persist in that plea;
- B. The right to a speedy and public trial by jury;
- C. The right to be represented by counsel—and, if necessary, have the court appoint counsel—at trial;
- D. The right to be presumed innocent and to require the government to prove the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt at trial;
- E. The right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses at trial;
- F. The right to testify or not to testify at trial, whichever the defendant chooses;

G. If the defendant chooses not to testify at trial, the right to have the jury informed that it may not treat that choice as evidence of guilt;

H. The right to present evidence or not to present evidence at trial, whichever the defendant chooses; and

I. The right to compel the attendance of witnesses at trial.

7. Collateral Consequences of Conviction

The defendant understands that his convictions here may carry additional consequences under federal or state law. The defendant understands that, if he is not a United States citizen, his convictions here may require him to be removed from the United States, denied citizenship, and denied admission to the United States in the future. The defendant further understands that the additional consequences of his convictions here may include, but are not limited to, adverse effects on the defendant's immigration status, naturalized citizenship, right to vote, right to carry a firearm, right to serve on a jury, and ability to hold certain licenses or to be employed in certain fields. The defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the Court, can predict to a certainty what the additional consequences of the defendant's convictions might be. The defendant nevertheless affirms that the defendant chooses to plead guilty regardless of any immigration or other consequences from his convictions.

8. Defendant's Guideline Range

A. Court's Determination

The Court will determine the defendant's guideline range at sentencing.

B. Acceptance of Responsibility

The government recommends under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B) that the defendant receive a two-level reduction for acceptance of responsibility under USSG § 3E1.1(a). Further, if the defendant's offense level is 16 or greater and the defendant is awarded the two-level reduction under USSG § 3E1.1(a), the government recommends that the defendant receive an additional one-level reduction for acceptance of responsibility under USSG § 3E1.1(b). If, however, the government learns that the defendant has engaged in any conduct inconsistent with acceptance of responsibility—including, but not limited to, making any false statement to, or withholding information from, his probation officer; obstructing justice in any way; denying his guilt on the offenses to which he is pleading guilty; committing additional crimes after pleading guilty; or otherwise demonstrating a lack of acceptance of responsibility as defined in USSG § 3E1.1—the government will be released from its obligations under this paragraph, will be free to argue that the defendant not receive any reduction for acceptance of responsibility under USSG § 3E1.1, and will be free to argue that the defendant receive an enhancement for obstruction of justice under USSG § 3C1.1.

C. Other Guideline Recommendations

The parties also recommend under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B) that the following guideline provisions apply to the defendant's guideline calculation on Count 1:

- USSG § 2G2.1(a), Base offense level: 32
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(1), Minor 12-16: +2
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(2), Sexual Act: +2
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(3), Distribution: +2
- USSG 2G2.1(b)(4), Sadistic or Masochistic Conduct: +4
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(5), Custody, Care, Control: +2

The parties also recommend under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B) that the following guideline provisions apply to the defendant's guideline calculation on Count 8:

- USSG § 2G2.1(a), Base offense level: 32
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(1), Minor under age 12: +4
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(2), Sexual Contact: +2
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(3), Distribution: +2
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(5), Custody, Care, Control: +2

The parties also recommend under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B) that the following guideline provisions apply to the defendant's guideline calculation on Count 12:

- USSG § 2G2.1(a), Base offense level: 32
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(1), Minor under age 12: +4
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(3), Distribution: +2
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(4), Toddler: +4
- USSG § 2G2.1(b)(5), Custody, Care, Control: +2

Finally, the parties agree that USSG § 4B1.5(b), repeat and dangerous sex offender (+5), applies to the calculation of defendant's guideline range.

D. Factual Stipulations for Sentencing Purposes

The parties have no additional factual agreements for sentencing purposes.

E. Parties' Obligations

Both the defendant and the government agree not to take any position or make any statement that is inconsistent with any of the guideline recommendations or factual stipulations in paragraphs 9.B, 9.C, or 9.D. Neither party is otherwise restricted in what it may argue or present to the Court as to the defendant's guideline calculation.

F. Not a Basis to Withdraw

The defendant understands that he will have no right to withdraw from this agreement or withdraw his guilty plea if he disagrees, in any way, with the guideline range determined by the Court, even if that guideline range does not incorporate the parties' recommendations or factual stipulations in paragraphs 8.B, 8.C, or 8.D. The government likewise has no right to withdraw from this agreement if it disagrees with the guideline range determined by the Court.

9. Imposition of Sentence

A. Court's Obligation

The defendant understands that in determining his sentence, the Court must calculate the applicable guideline range at sentencing and must consider that range, any possible departures under the sentencing guidelines, and the sentencing factors listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), and apply any applicable mandatory minimums.

B. Imprisonment

1. Agreement

Under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), the parties agree that a sentence of at least 480 months and no more than 720 months is the appropriate disposition of this case.

2. Recommendation

Further, the United States recommends that the sentence of imprisonment in this case run concurrently with the defendant's sentence of imprisonment in state of Michigan, 31st Circuit Court, Case No. 23-001352-FC.

3. Limited Right to Withdraw

If the Court rejects the agreement by deciding to impose a sentence of imprisonment higher than permitted by paragraph 9.B.1, the defendant will be permitted to withdraw his guilty plea. That is the only reason the defendant may withdraw his guilty plea. If the defendant decides not to withdraw his guilty plea in those circumstances, the defendant agrees that the Court may impose a sentence higher than permitted by paragraph 9.B.1 and that all other provisions in this agreement will remain in effect.

If the Court rejects the plea agreement by deciding to impose a sentence of imprisonment lower than permitted by paragraph 9.B.1, or by rejecting or purporting to reject any other term or terms of this agreement, the government will be permitted to withdraw from this agreement.

C. Supervised Release

1. Recommendation

The parties have no agreement as to supervised release.

2. No Right to Withdraw

The parties' recommendation is not binding on the Court. The defendant understands that he will have no right to withdraw from this agreement or withdraw his guilty plea if the Court decides not to follow the parties' recommendation. The defendant also understands that the government's agreement concerning the length of the defendant's sentence of imprisonment, as described above in paragraph 9.B.1, will not apply to or limit any term of imprisonment that results from any later revocation of the defendant's supervised release.

D. Fines

The parties have no agreement as to a fine.

E. Restitution

The Court must order restitution to every identifiable victim of the defendant's offense. There is no recommendation or agreement on restitution. The Court will determine at sentencing who the victims are and the amounts of restitution they are owed.

The defendant agrees that restitution is due and payable immediately after the judgment is entered and is subject to immediate enforcement, in full, by the United States. 18 U.S.C. §§ 3612(c) and 3613. If the Court imposes a schedule of payments, the defendant agrees that the schedule of payments is a schedule of the minimum payment due, and that the payment schedule does not prohibit or limit the methods by which the United States may immediately enforce the judgment in full.

The defendant agrees to make a full presentence disclosure of his financial status to the United States Attorney's Office by completing a Financial Disclosure Form and the accompanying releases for the purpose of determining his ability to pay restitution. The defendant agrees to complete and return the Financial Disclosure Form within three weeks of receiving it from government counsel. The defendant agrees to participate in a presentencing debtor's examination if requested to do so by government counsel.

F. Forfeiture

As part of this agreement, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253(a), the defendant agrees to forfeit his interest in the following:

1. Any visual depiction described in Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2251, 2251A, or 2252, 2252A, 2252B, or 2260, or any book, magazine, periodical, film, videotape, or other matter which contains any such visual depiction, which was produced, transported, mailed, shipped, or received in violation of these subsections;

2. Any property, real or personal, constituting or traceable to gross profits or other proceeds obtained as a result of the defendant's violation; and
3. Any property, real or personal, used or intended to be used to commit or to promote the commission of the defendant's violation.

The defendant agrees to the entry of one or more orders of forfeiture, including the entry of a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, incorporating the forfeiture of the Subject Property following the defendant's guilty plea, upon application by the United States as mandated by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2. The defendant agrees that the forfeiture order will become final as to the defendant at the time entered by the Court.

The defendant expressly waives his right to have a jury determine the forfeitability of his interest in the Subject Property as provided by Rule 32.2(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

The defendant further waives the requirements of Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32.2 and 43(a) regarding notice of the forfeiture in the charging instrument, announcement of the forfeiture at sentencing, and incorporation of the forfeiture in the judgment.

The defendant acknowledges that he understands that the forfeiture of property is part of the sentence that may be imposed in this case and waives his right to challenge any failure by the Court to advise him of his rights with respect to forfeiture, set forth in Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(b)(1)(J), at the time his guilty plea is accepted.

The defendant further agrees to hold the United States, its agents and employees, harmless from any claims whatsoever in connection with the seizure and forfeiture of the property referenced above.

The defendant knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waives any statutory and constitutional challenge to the above-described forfeiture including any challenge based upon the Double Jeopardy Clause and the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

G. Special Assessment

The defendant understands that he will be required to pay a special assessment of $300, due immediately upon sentencing.

In addition, under the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act of 2015, the defendant will be required to pay a special assessment of $5,000, due immediately upon sentencing. However, if the Court finds that the defendant is indigent, he will not be ordered to pay this amount.

10. SORNA

The defendant understands that by pleading guilty in this case, he will be required to register as a sex offender, under both federal and state registration requirements. As a condition of his release from prison on supervised release in this case, the defendant will be obligated to promptly register under the federal sex offender registry. Defendant may also be required to register under the law of the state in which he resides, as well as any state where he has significant contacts (including any state where he resides, works, attends school or otherwise has significant contacts). The defendant further understands that he will be required to maintain and update his registration for at least twenty years, and potentially for the rest of his life.

11. Appeal Waiver

The defendant waives any right he may have to appeal his conviction on any grounds. The defendant also waives any right he may have to appeal his sentence on any grounds.

12. Collateral Review Waiver

The defendant retains the right to raise claims alleging ineffective assistance of counsel or prosecutorial misconduct, as long as the defendant properly raises those claims by collateral review under 28 U.S.C. § 2255. The defendant also retains the right to pursue any relief permitted under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c), as long as the defendant properly files a motion under that section. The defendant, however, waives any other right he may have to challenge his conviction or sentence by collateral review, including, but not limited to, any right he may have to challenge his conviction or sentence on any grounds under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 (except for properly raised ineffective assistance of counsel or prosecutorial misconduct claims, as described above), 28 U.S.C. § 2241, or Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59 or 60.

13. Remedies for Withdrawal, Breach, Rejection, or Vacatur

If the defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty pleas or breaches this agreement, or if the Court rejects this agreement, or if the defendant's conviction or sentence under this agreement is vacated, the government may reinstate any charges against the defendant that were dismissed as part of this agreement and may file additional charges against the defendant relating, directly or indirectly, to any of the conduct underlying the defendant's guilty plea or any relevant conduct. If the defendant has been permitted to plead guilty to a lesser-included offense, the government may also reinstate any charges or file any additional charges against the defendant for the greater offense, and the defendant waives his double-jeopardy rights with respect to the greater offense. If the government reinstates any charges or files any additional charges as permitted by this paragraph, the defendant waives his right to challenge those charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

14. Use of Withdrawn Guilty Plea

The defendant agrees that if he is permitted to withdraw his guilty plea for any reason, he waives all of his rights under Federal Rule of Evidence 410, and the government may use his guilty plea, any statement that the defendant made at his guilty plea hearing, and the factual basis set forth in this agreement, against the defendant in any proceeding.

15. Parties to Plea Agreement

This agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

16. Scope of Plea Agreement

This plea agreement is the complete agreement between the parties and supersedes any other promises, representations, understandings, or agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to the defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before the defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this plea agreement.

If the parties have entered, or subsequently enter, into a written proffer or cooperation agreement, though, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of that agreement. This plea agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against the defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

17. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the United States Attorney's Office by 5:00 pm on 2/2/2024. The government may withdraw from this agreement at any time before the defendant pleads guilty.
